STATEMENT GIVEN OUT

BY AMBASSADOR GERARD Not Here to Tell of Germany's Chang in Submarine Warfare.

New York, Oct. 11 .- James W. Gerard, United States ambassador to Germany, who returned here yesterday on his first vacation in nearly three years, issued a formal statement late today in which he denied that his home-coming had been caused by the need of warning the administration at Washington of Germany's intention to resume indiscriminate submarine warfare against neutral, as well as hostile shipping. hostile, shipping. The ambasasdor's statement was as follows:

You may say that it is not true "You may say that it is not true that I came home at this time to serve notice on the president of Germany's intention to repudiate her pledges regarding the conduct of submarine warfare, or that Germany was contemplating the resumption of submarine attacks upon all kinds of shipping.

"I say to you, what I said to a reporter for the Berliner Tageblatt a Copenhagen before I sailed:
"I should not think of leaving my cost at this time if I were not convinced that the relations between m country and Germany were as friendly as they could be and gave every prom-ise of continuing so indefinitely."

State Department.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The reply of the French government to the protest of the United States government against interference with the mails has reached Washington and probably soon will be laid before the state department. Its delivery to Secretary Lansing probably will be delayed until it and the British reply can be presented simultaneously.

Meanwhile the notes are subjects of consideration by the ambassadors of the allied powers in Washington with the purpose of securing a harmoni-ous presentation of the allied case to the United States.

Nothing is known officially at this stage of the contents of the notes but it is believed that although expressing willingness to do everything possible to minimize annoyance and delay caus-ed by examination of the mails, the allied powers are by no means willing to admit the lack of legal right on their part to continue such examination or to make any change in the principle
